PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Facilities and workplace operations leader with 10+ years of experience managing complex operations across commercial, technology, hospitality, and healthcare environments. Two IFMA global designations (FMP, SFP), McKinsey leadership training, and CBRE's integrated facilities management curriculum back a track record of building high-performing teams, managing enterprise-level vendor contracts, and driving compliance, safety, and cost-saving initiatives. Equally comfortable troubleshooting an MEP system and building the strategy and metrics that keep a portfolio performing — leadership development isn't a line on the resume, it's the discipline invested in most.
